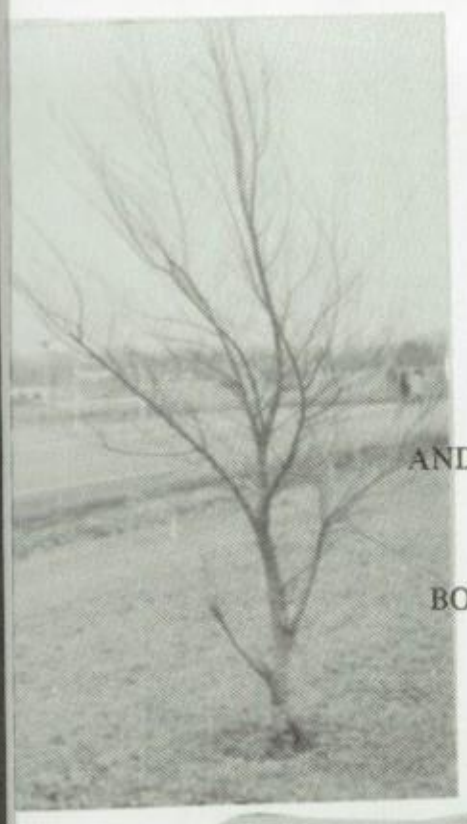
WE COME TO SCHOOL EACH DAY

AND WE GO HOME EACH NIGHT

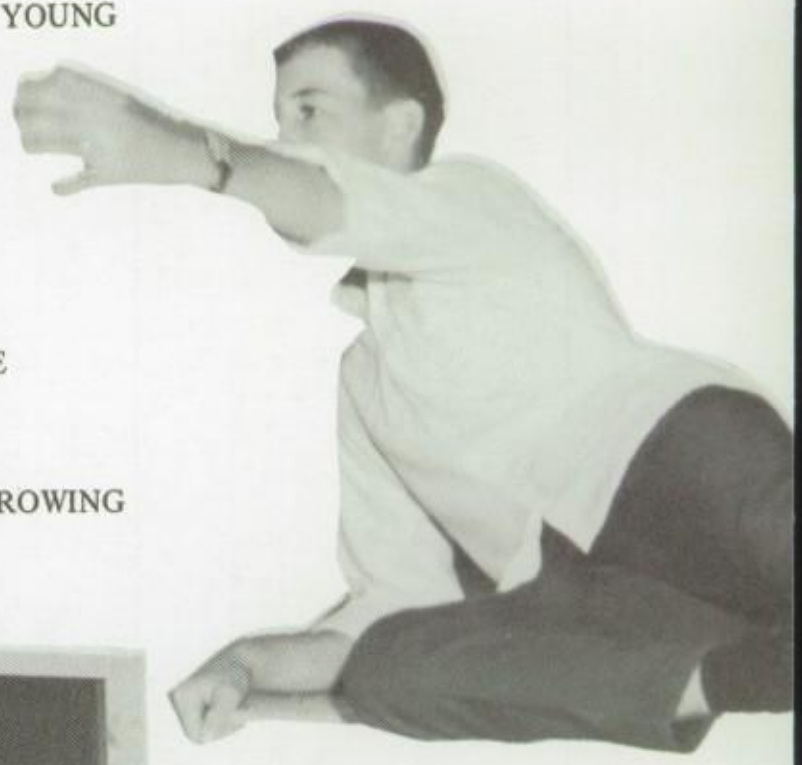
BUT IT'S WHAT WE DO INBETWEEN THAT COUNTS

HELLO WORLD

WE'RE THREE YEARS OLD



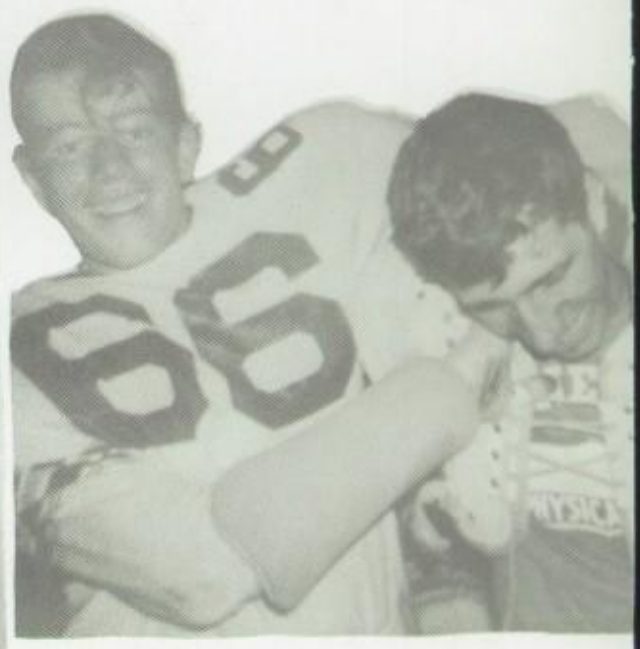
WE ARE YOUNG



AND SO IS THIS TREE

BOTH OF US ARE GROWING

WE'LL MAKE IT THOUGH



BECAUSE WE'RE DETERMINED TO BE SEEN IN VOLUME

OUR ENTHUSIASM SATURATES EVERYTHING WE DO

AND EVERYTHING WE DO

OUR ATTITUDE REFLECTS AN ACTIVE INTEREST
EVERY MOMENT

THIS TOTALS SUCCESS

WE DEMONSTRATE SPIRIT CONSTANTLY
AS SPIRIT CAN'T BE SEPARATED FROM OUR ACTION

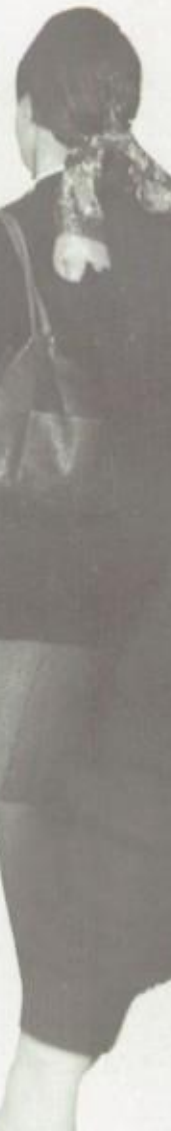
WE LEARN WITH A DEFINITE PURPOSE
IN MIND:

TO CREATE AS AN INDIVIDUAL
AND FUNCTION AS A WHOLE



WE LIVE IN MOTION

THIS IS THE STORY
OF OUR YEAR

WHAT A DIFFERENCE A YEAR MAKES

Mike . . . Last year . . . 1968

Mike . . . This year . . . 1969

When I was a child, I used to talk like a child, think like a child, reason like a child. But when I became a man, I put away childish ways.
Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians.

I Cor. 13/1-13.

Ringless last year . . .

bedecked this year . . . a ring CAN make a difference.

Queen Terry and her escort Jim.

Spirit week contest winners Homeroom 203.

109's horse in the making.

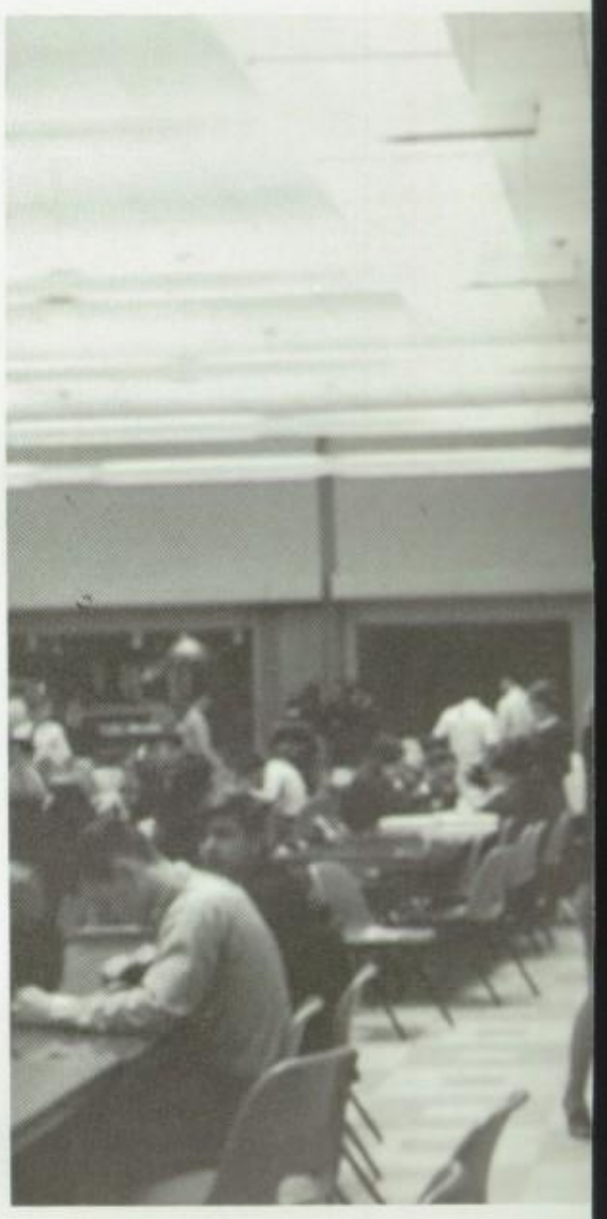
SPIRIT WEEK WAS SPONSORED BY PEP CLUB

We had our bonfires

And our mock elections

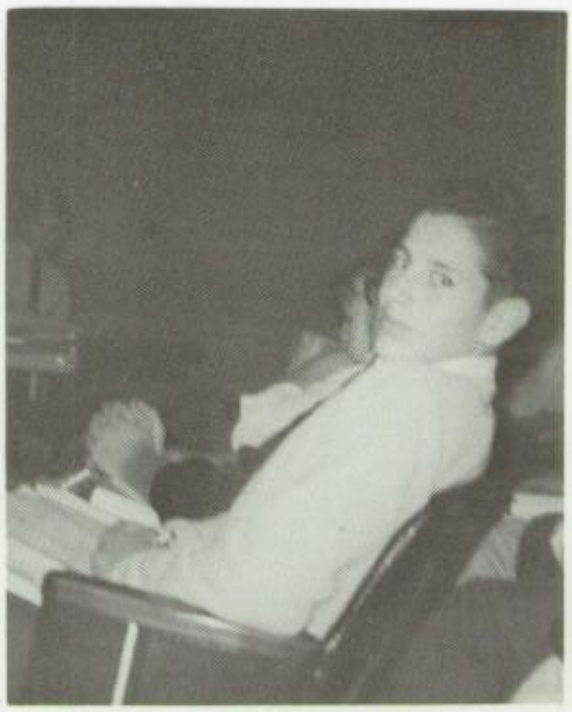
Our tense moments

Slumber parties



We decorated for dances

Open house for parents



We had assemblies

Our home games

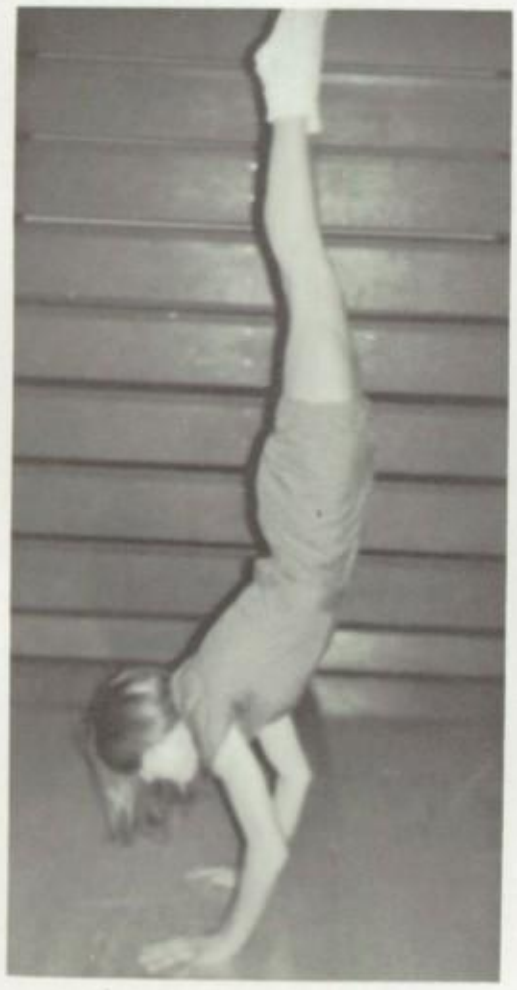
Candidates talked

. . . and talked

. . . and talked

We listened

. . . and listened



We had our gym night

Sad moments too

But in spite of it all, we're still SMILING.

INININOW

Candy Hazdra pauses for prayer would you believe ...

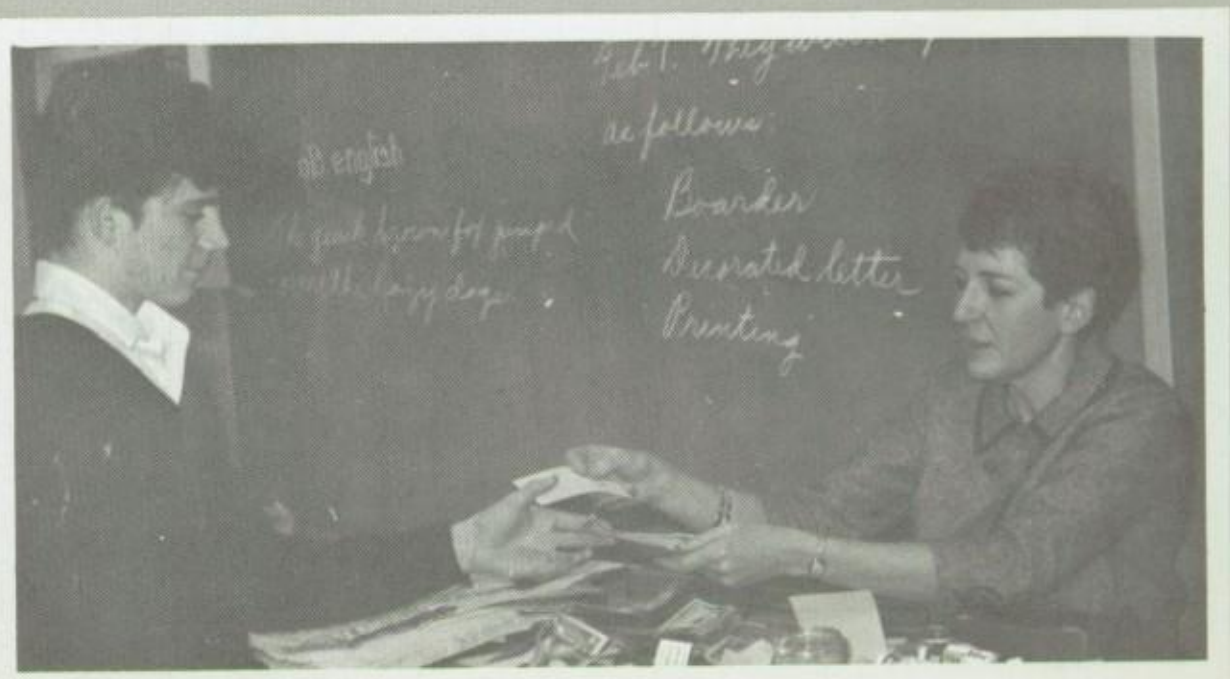
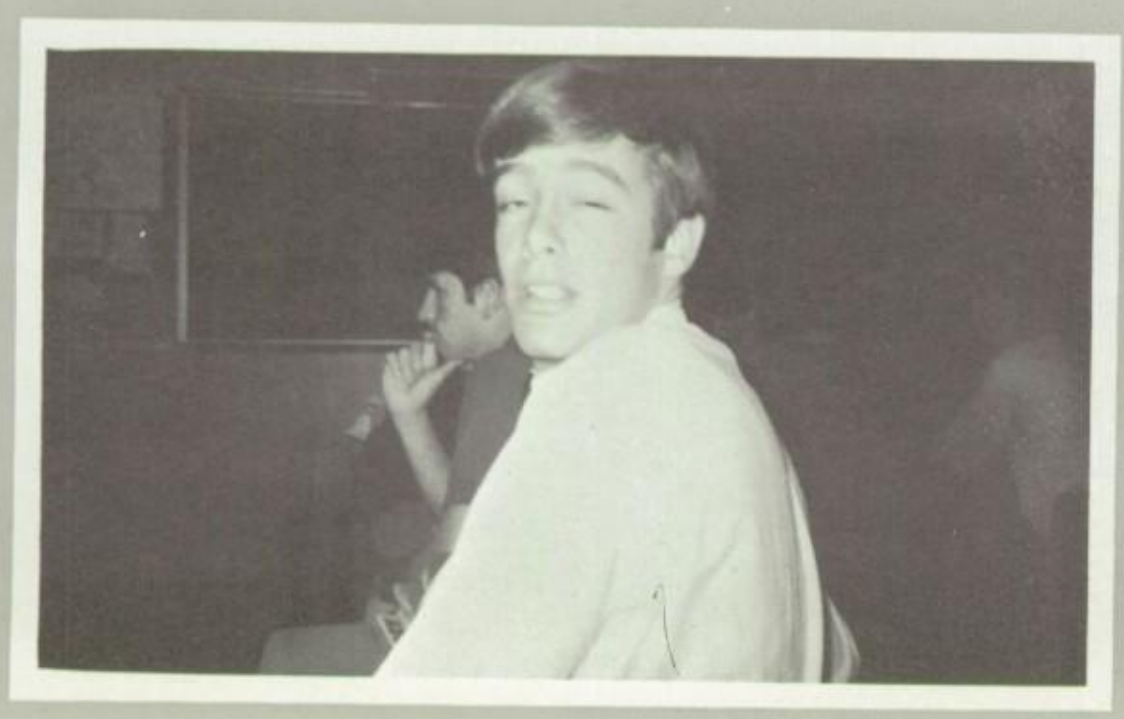
. . . that this dance brought rain?

. . . that nobody wants us?



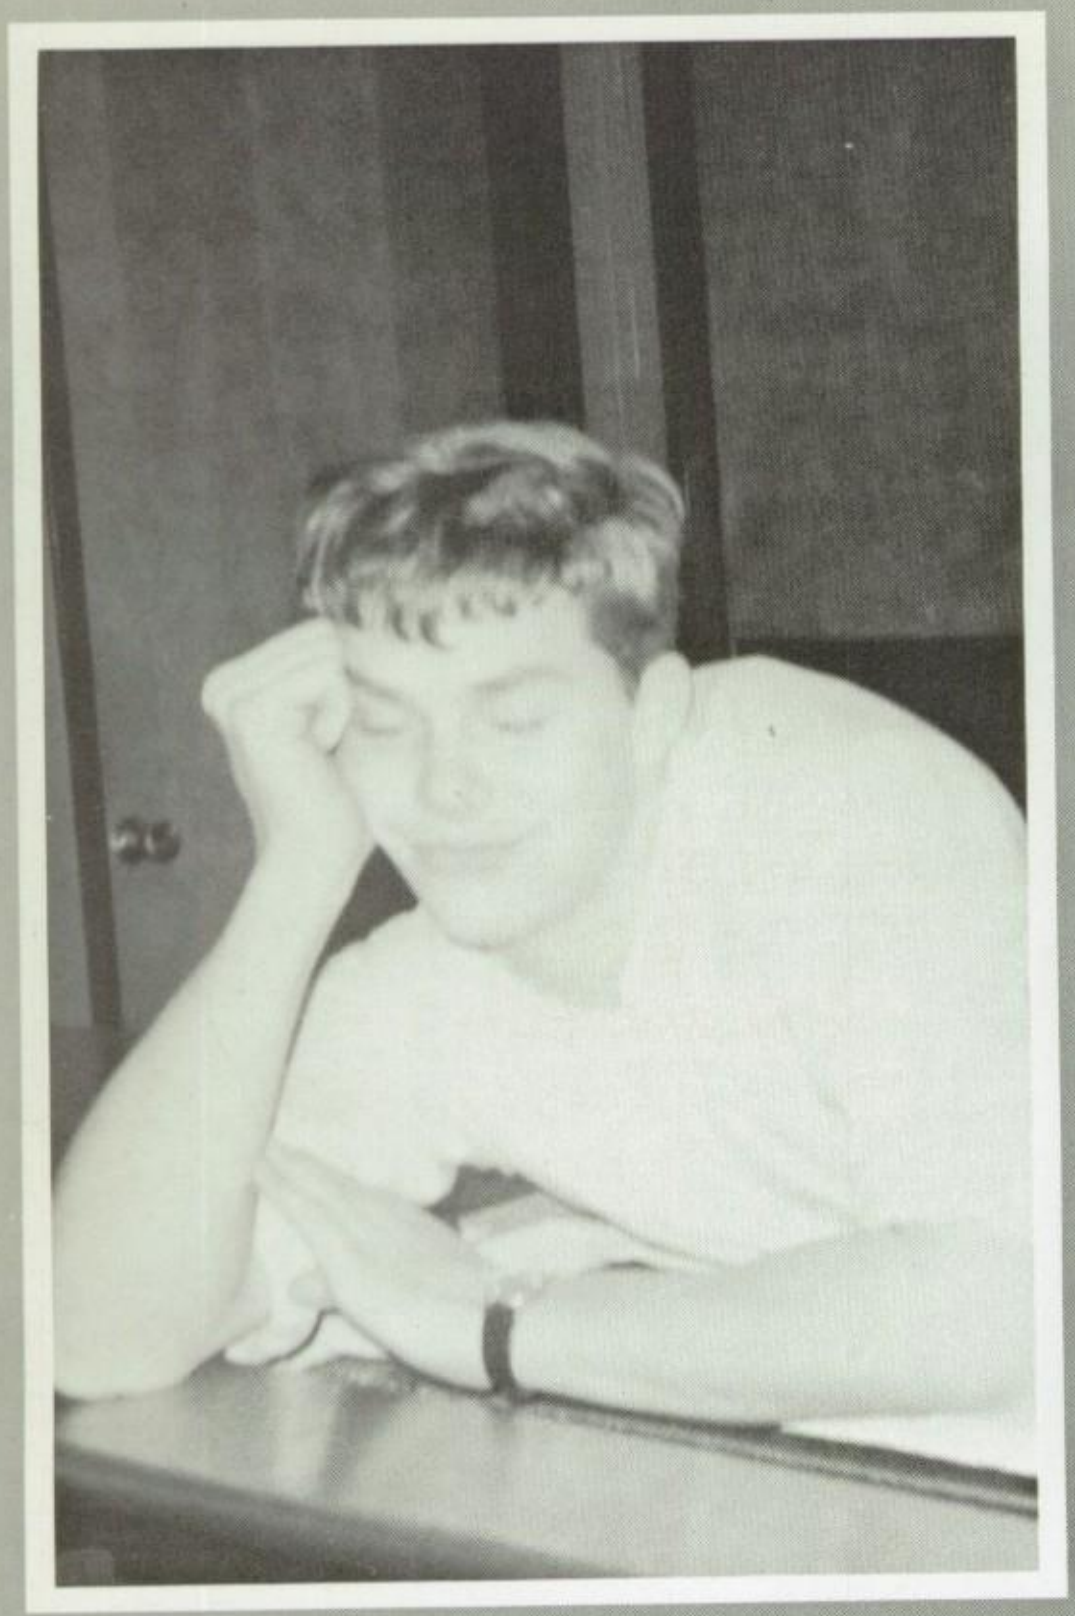
. . . that unfortunately the horse didn't win?

. . . that they aren't even married?



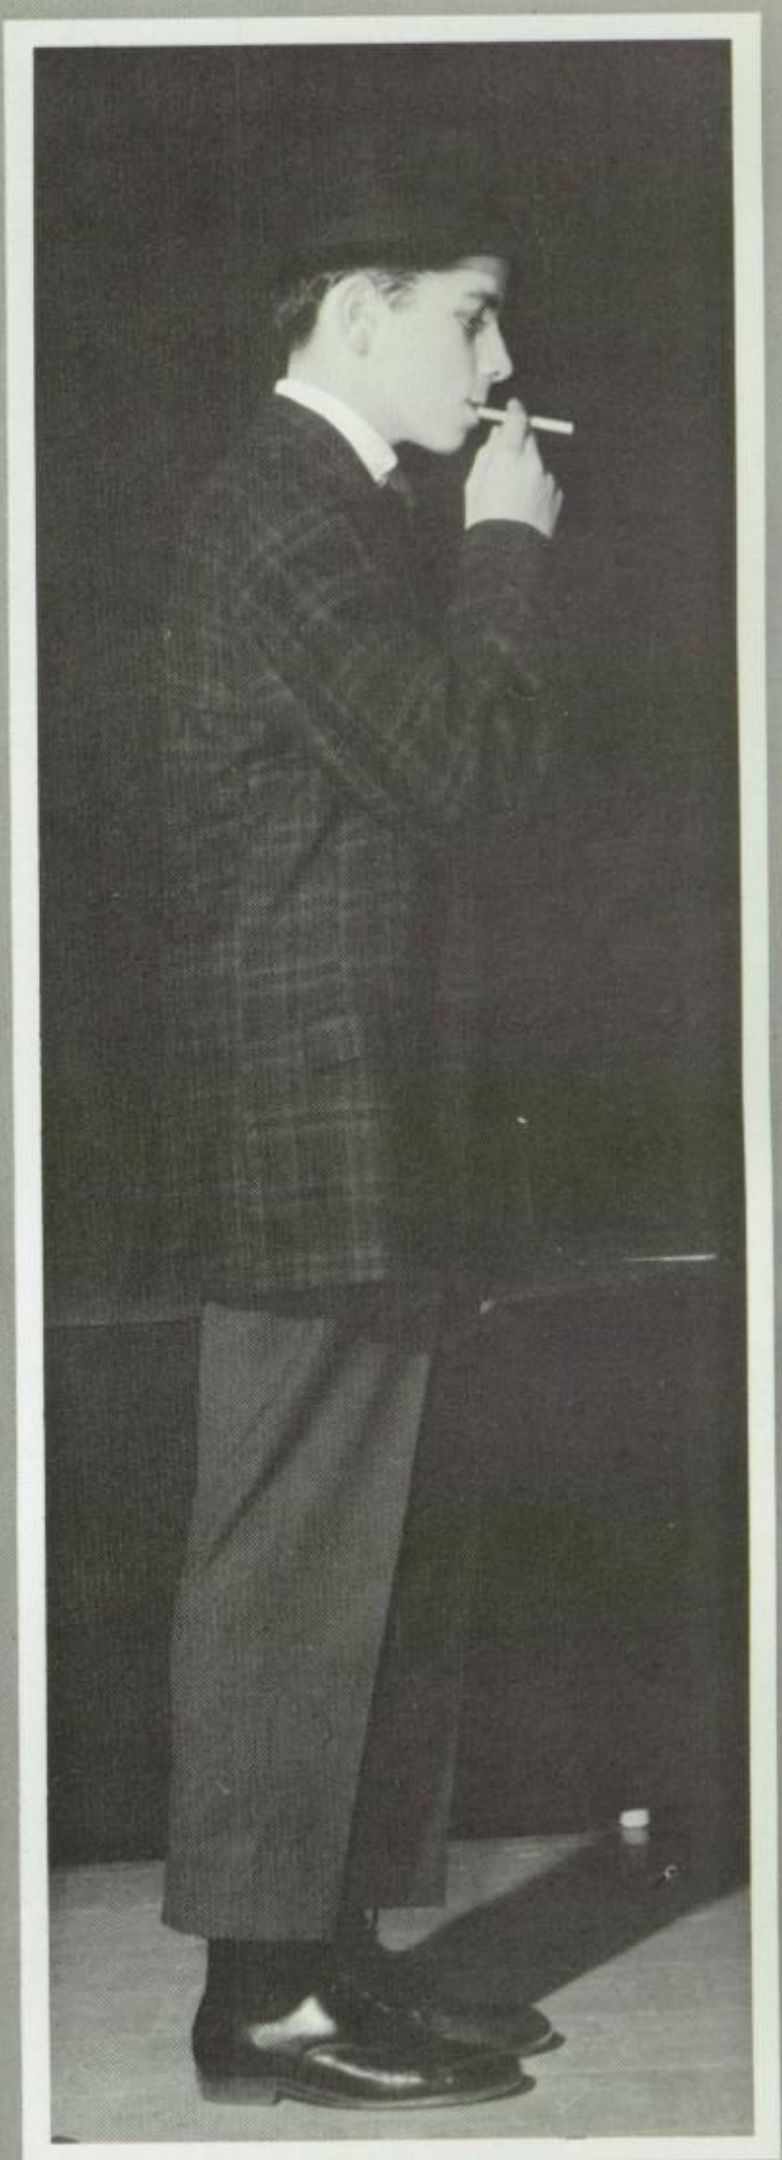
. . . that Dennis had nothing to say?

. . . that Student Council drives Pat to drink?



. . . that this is why he lost his job?

. . . that Kathy Duffy is under att that plaster?



. . . that no one at Montini smokes?

. . . that last week they took off my training wheels and next week I'm getting my steering wheel?

. . . that Jim really missed one?

. . . that Mary Olsen studies?

. . . that Mike Mcgowan took this shot?

. . . that this is our Linda?

. . . that no one decorates their lockers?

. . . that she talked for 10 minutes with a busy signal?

. . . that this isn't the dog that Sue Kloza won?

. . . that Jan found her missing contact lens?

. . . that this is Tiny Tim?

. . . that this is the only picture we have of Barry smiling?

"...I sure love your enemies because they drive you to my arms for comfort."
I think that about explains it i told you not to do it...

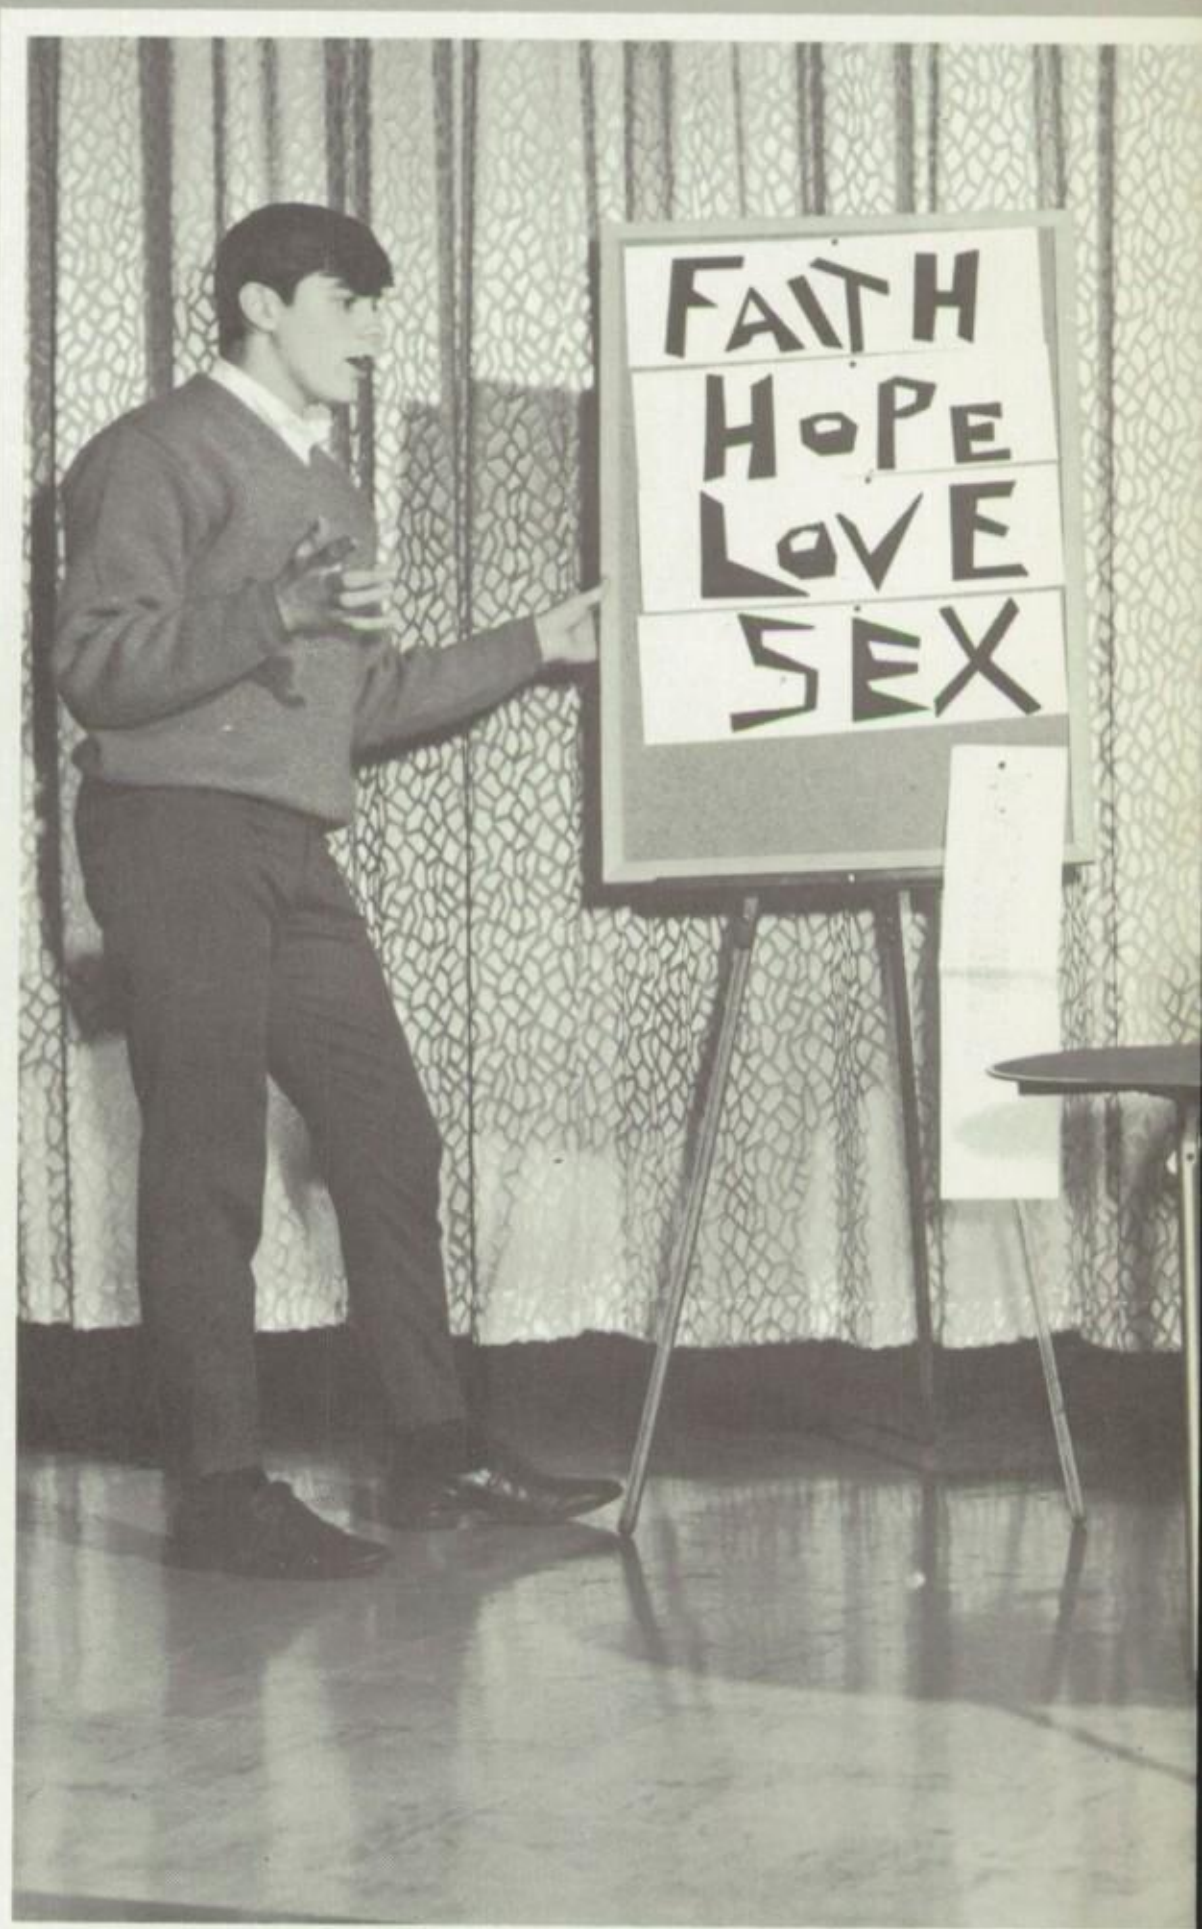
eat . . . eat . . . eat

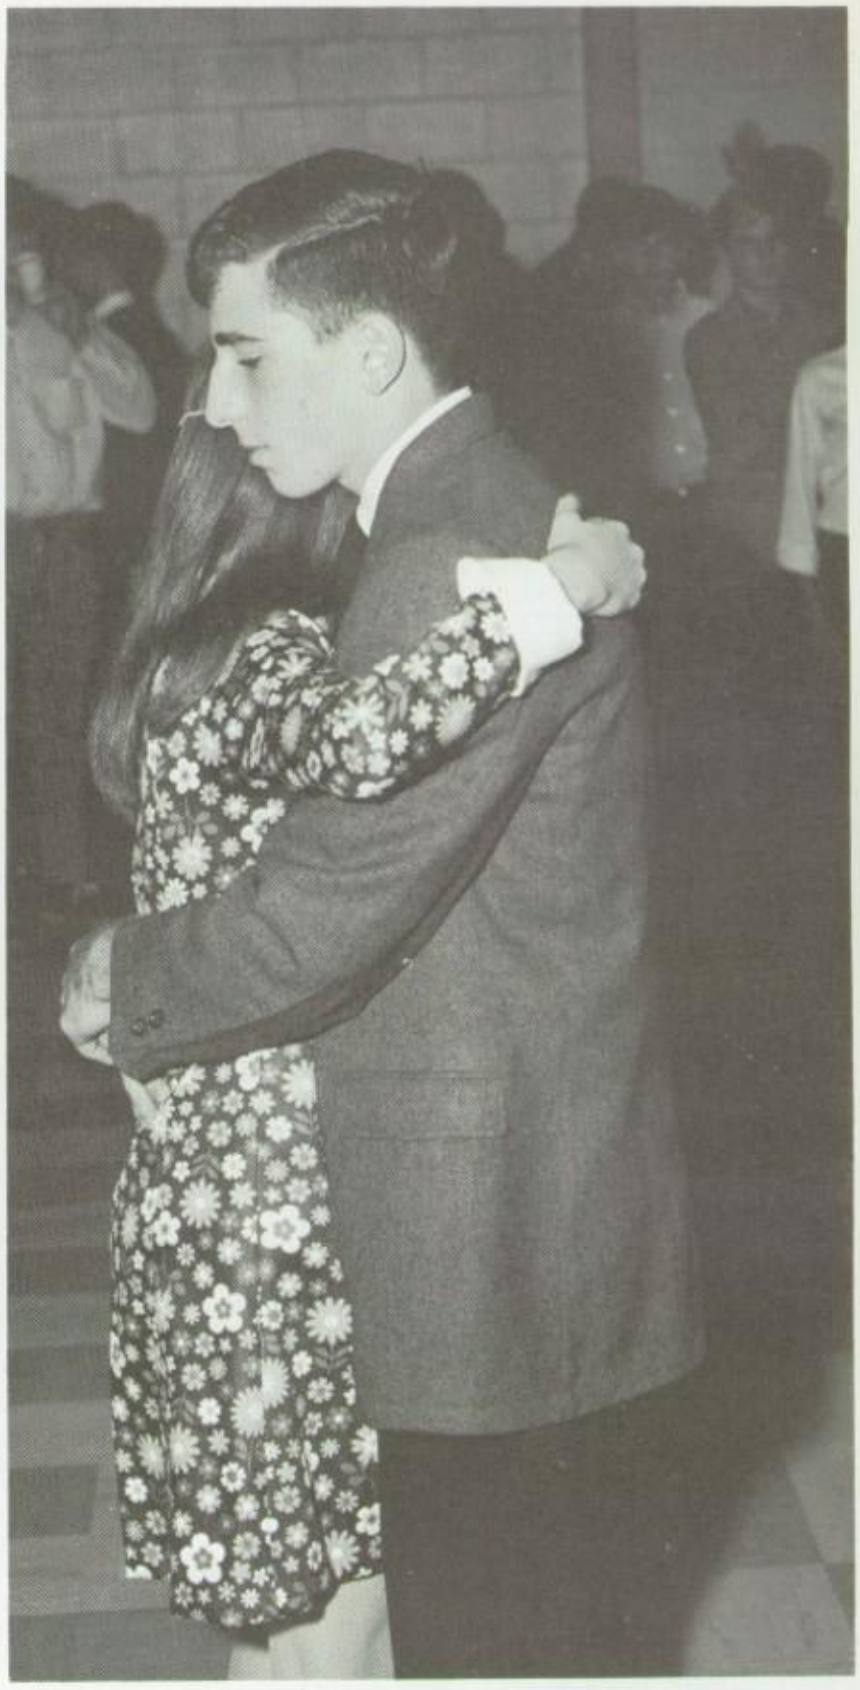
dress like a damn fool

Play with that needle until you stuck your finger.



Get hung up on a subject like that.

Worry, worry during a game.



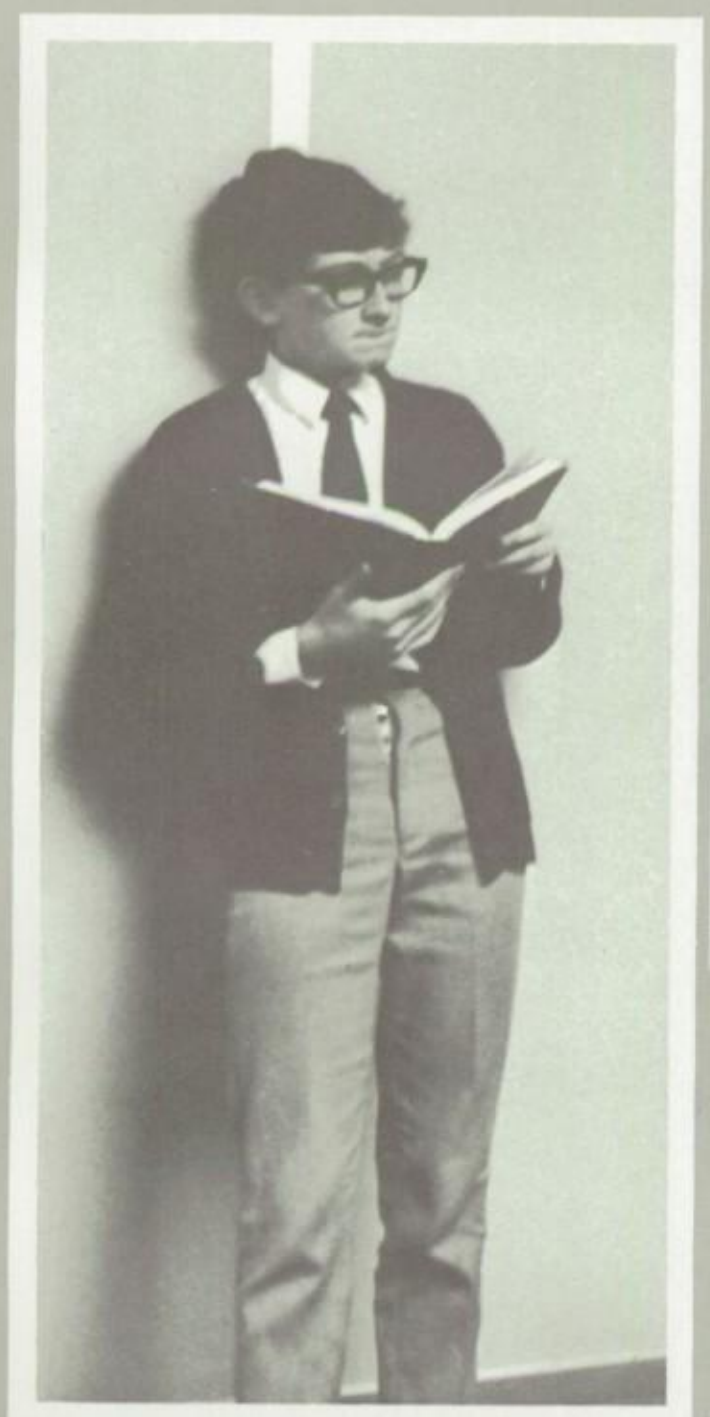
Dance like this to the slow ones.

Try those do it yourself kits without reading the instructions.

Try to make a six passenger horse.

Close the book store so early.

Try to be the hero in one play.



Come to school in the morning before the doors are open.

Fool around after school until you miss your bus.

...but you did it anyway

DEAR MARK!
SOMETIMES I THINK I KNOW YOU AND THEN I'M NOT SURE. I GUESS WE'VE KNOWN YOU FOR A LONG TIME BUT WE COULD GET TO KNOW EACHOTHER EVEN BETTER. THANKS FOR THE GOOD TIME ON THE RETREAT. YOUR HEAD SEEMES SO YOUNG AND GROWING IS SUCH A BEAUTIFUL THING. I WISH YOU PEACE AND KNOWLEDGE AND BE GOOD AND BEAUTIFUL.
LOVE.

LOVE,
Jo

Mark,
You're really about my only true, true friend. I'll never forget you for all you've done for me here at Montini. I realize I've done some things you didn't like, and sometimes that you thought went against you. Maybe you did create a monster Mark, but everything I've ever done, or will ever do, will never be in anyway malicious towards you. Because of what I've been this year I've got to work for the school, that's why I've done what I've done. Anyway, it's been great and if there's anything I can do now that I'm through with Council let me know.

Thanx
Pat

Mark-
To the great King-maker of Montini! You've been wonderful to all of us especially Peggy. You really took a load off my shoulders doing that.
How could I, rather you, ever forget those hysterical hues. Oh, Icky! Thanks for the great guitar and Gay and everything, even the retreat!
Good Luck!

Love
Debbie

P.S. Remember the Mart!!
Remember the Election!!

Steagall,

Congratulations! I hope you'll be very happy.

Sincerely yours,

Bayee

Mark,
The guy who sits in front of me in English + to whom
I am debted to for that lovely white button, Thanks,
Mark duh....
Karen

Mark,

I'm starting this letter on top because I know that with my big mouth, it'll take till the bottom. I still mean what I wrote in my Christmas card - you have taught me more than anyone about people. But, this year, you've even taught me more about your own self. You are, I can honestly say, one of the coolest, realest ~~people~~ persons that I have ever known really well. But, ya see, you have this thing - yp = YOU! I know, I've said that in the past few days. But, I really mean that and for your sake, I wish you'd break away from your own apron strings - not just with Marge and Pat + your other close friends, but with everyone. Maybe that's asking for the perfect person - but that is what you'd be practically, if you did. No, Mark, I don't want to change you - ever and everything I have said is "for your own good" (oh Lord, what a bad cliché) Hey, I'm running out of room! Damn! I love you exactly

♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦♦ WE A

Good luck with your newspaper (?)

And let your hair grow over the summer! I hope I'm around to watch it grow.

Love always,
Gary (Gus)

P.S. For your own good, give me up the way you are (to me). But please, think of what I've said - probably will keep saying - and act! I know you can do it.

I'll never forget retreat Mark. I'm sorry you think I've changed since then, but you're right, I am a crazy mixed up kid. Know what? I promise not to be afraid any - more.

And believe me, you're not just some - one to take me to parties. Please believe that. For once, I am dead serious, Mr. Henderson. You and your "murderous calm". You do it quite well, ya know.
